FATS PATTS VISITORS GIVE GREAT DISPLAY AT SOUTH SIDE

Those who made the pilgrimage to the South Side Athletic Park on Monday to witness the touring Australians lounge with a local all-star eleven were well rewarded by seeing such high class play as has been provided. Even the uninitiated could not but be impressed by the skillful performance of the Aussies.

One item that made a profound impression was the high caliber of the bowling displayed by the Aussies. The locals naturally had not been up against this calibre of play and could not be expected to rise to meet it on such short notice.

And while the Aussies were formidable in bowling they were equally strong in their fielding. Several of the batsmen were hit hard by the bowlers, but the batsmen were not so easily bowled out as they were in their result.

As if this would not convey the impression that the Aussies were strong enough, it might be said that they also showed power in the offensive. They were not so easily bowled out as they were in their result.

But all the good play was not on the part of the Aussies, although they were the main attraction.

One cannot but pause to pay tribute to Thomson and King for their magnificent catch.

Possibly the visit of the Aussie will add additional impetus to the game in this city.

In aquatic sports, galley and water polo were the main attractions. In the water polo, the Aussie team was victorious.

The half mile swim was not an unqualified success for Carmen MacKay, the favorite, but he did not win.

The "dark horses" scheduled to take part in the main heat races were the Aussies, but they were not so successful.

The baseball was getting going at 10:30. The game was a close one, but the Aussies were victorious.

Always providing South Side with the best of the game, the Aussies were the main attraction.

And just because Monday was the last day of the tour, the Aussies were not so successful.

Hockey is a long way off, but the Aussies were the main attraction.

Reg seemed to think that there would be a big crowd, but they were not so successful.

Tourists' Bowling Proves Too Good for Edmonton Batsmen—Don Bradman is Centre of Attraction

By WILLIAM THOMPSON

Displaying striking superiority in all departments of play, the visiting Australian cricket team captured the first of a two-game series with local all-star aggregation at the South Side Athletic Park on Monday. The Aussies scored 277 runs for seven against 81 for Edmonton, while in the last hour of play the Australians again put Edmonton in for a second time and the locals amassed 63 for nine wickets.

This second time at bat only served to confirm the Gibraltar-like strength of the visitors bowling. For instance, Fleetwood Smith, who had not been used in the first inning, took seven wickets in the short period of half an hour.

The second game will be played on Tuesday, with a different local team opposing the touring party.

Play was well attended on Monday with Don Bradman, Arthur Mailey and McCabe being magnets that drew much attention.

One of World's Best

Ed. "Strangler" Lewis has often been called one of the world's greatest wrestlers and with the tributes often comes a question: Why is he called "Strangler"? The name comes from Ed's famous hold, the backlock. When the hold is applied around the head pressure is slowly increased stopping the circulation to the brain. Wrestlers who have been victims of the hold describe the sensation as, "dropping into a soundless void." Lewis was born in Kentucky of German stock and often has six matches a week collecting his purse at each match. Some racket, eh?

On the face but kept going. This is the hold that leaves no unconscious.

EX-SERVICE MEN ASSERT FAVOR SHOWN

Non-affiliated Veterans See Partiality for Legionnaires

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—Disaffection with the personnel of the committee which will investigate the pension of the Pension Act, and disappointment that the organization of which he is a member, the non-affiliated veterans, the representatives of the blind soldiers and sailors and of the amputation cases Mr. Young has announced as "non-affiliated veterans." Their disabilities were obvious and consequently to be expected, and it was not surprising that pension payments were distributed to them. On the other hand, the various associations which had been members of the committee.

"Most of those named in the committee personnel," said Mr. Young, "are connected with veterans drawing the average of 100 per cent pension, and are men with serious disabilities, requiring the maximum."

He charged that the public sympathy which such cases receive was the cause of their appointment. Mr. Young claims to represent over 100,000 ex-service men, from coast to coast.

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

By DAN THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 9.—Because it drives her crazy to be idle, she has turned motion picture actress. But she doesn't like it. However, Ruth Selwyn admits that with a little more success she probably would find it very much to her liking to be regarded as a copy in this genre. "I'm not a copy," she says, "but I'm a copy."

"Nobody likes to do things halfway," Ruth told me as the two of us sat in the back of a car. "I'm not a copy, but I'm a copy."

"I'm slowly beginning to learn things about this picture racket, too, so perhaps one of these days I'll get the break I have been wanting. After all those months I finally have discovered that having a contract with a studio doesn't mean a thing."

"You still have to fight for everything I have just started to do, and now I see how much good it does. At least I am playing my best role to date now—opposite Buster Keaton in 'Speakeasy'."

In appearance, Ruth is an extremely good-looking ingenu. Actually, she is more than that. At least her biography prepared by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio, where she is under contract, states that she married Selwyn 10 years ago, and that she is a mother of three children. She is a native of Chicago, and she is a native of Chicago.

Further proof of her record of success is the fact that she has been the producer of two New York stage successes, using the only way known to achieve this.

When the Selwyns first came to Hollywood, they were a family unit engaged in sports and social life. They were a family unit engaged in sports and social life.

JOBLESS TREK BACK TO LAND IN 7 AREAS

Provinces Now Actively Engaged in Placing Families

OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—The unemployed have, however, a trek back to the land in seven of the nine provinces of the Dominion under the legislation adopted by the Dominion parliament last spring. Information received last night at the office of H. W. A. Gordon, minister of immigration and colonization, was to the effect that, although the provinces of Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are now actively engaged in placing unemployed families on vacant farms and are in a fair way to becoming independent.

The provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Quebec, Prince Edward Island, and British Columbia are making a survey preparatory to taking advantage of the arrangement.

AUTHORITY PROGRAM
The program which is authorized for a period expiring May 31, 1933, provides that families receiving direct unemployment relief, suitable for life on a farm, are assisted to the extent of $500 over a period of two years to establish themselves on vacant farms.
